

Experience Management and Analytics MS

SCHOOL OF SPORT, TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

About the Program

The Master of Science in Experience Management & Analytics program is dedicated to preparing the next generation of global leaders in the experience industries of entertainment, events, hospitality, sport, and tourism. Through this program, these future leaders will be equipped with a unique blend of advanced analytical skills and immersive, practical knowledge in experience management. STEM designated, this program aims to prepare students for influential leadership roles across various sectors in the global experience industries. In addition, the program aims to prepare researchers for doctoral level work and industry-based research positions in the related fields. At its core, the program recognizes and addresses the escalating global demand for highly skilled professionals in the experience industries.

The program's curriculum places a strong emphasis on innovative experience design and management, integrating extensive industry knowledge, cutting-edge analytics skillset, and comprehensive research methodologies. A key differentiator of our program is the deep integration of analytics in every aspect of the curriculum. The future of experience industries is heavily reliant on data-driven decision-making and research thinking. The program equips students with the necessary knowledge and tools to analyze, interpret, and apply data analytics effectively for research empowered leadership positions across the relevant industries and fields.

Time Limit for Degree Completion: 4 years

Campus Location: Main and Online

Full-Time/Part-Time Status: The degree program can be completed on a full- or part-time basis.

Study Abroad: The program provides immersion experiences through various campus locations and can facilitate internship experiences abroad through the Center for Industry Engagement.

Job Prospects: Graduates will find employment opportunities in industries such as entertainment, transportation, retail, healthcare, and finance, as data analysts, market research leads, sales analysts, business analysts, forecasting analysts, and healthcare data analysts.

Financing Opportunities: Students are automatically considered for merit scholarships from the School of Sport, Tourism and Hospitality Management (STHM) at the time of admission. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of a student's academic history and professional experience.

Teaching and Research Assistantships within STHM are reserved for students who are capable of teaching undergraduate classes in specialized academic areas or assisting in faculty research. Graduate Externships are also available in a variety of areas around the university. Only admitted students may be awarded assistantships and externships.

Teaching Assistants (TAs), Research Assistants (RAs), and Graduate Externs (GEs) are expected to provide between 5 and 20 hours per week of service throughout the academic year. A nine-month stipend and partial or full (up to 9 credits) tuition remission for the Fall and Spring terms are offered for TAs and RAs, depending on the number of hours worked. GEs receive a stipend only. Applications for assistantships and externships are not evaluated until a Graduate School application, and all appropriate materials have been received. The evaluation of applicants for Teaching and Research Assistantships and Graduate Externships begins by March and continues until all positions have been filled.
